GM's Message

Hashers,

Welcome to the Seletar Hash House Harriers' 30th Anniversary Celebration Run. I sincerely hope that you will all have a great time during the weekend running, walking or even more importantly, guzzling beer with your fellow Hashers from Singapore and around the world. I would like to thank you all for your participation in our celebratory event, given the short notice of said event as our Organizing Chair took his time getting off his arse given his advanced age and the piles that come with said age.

My committee took the helm in mid-Feb '10 and we had four months to prepare for the event. With the assistance of the organizing committee, chaired by our venerable and only kwailoh* Gandhi**, Virgina Slim***, we started full throttle to expedite every aspect of making the event a true Seletar one, something that we art Seletar have taken pride in historically+. In short, every one of the committee have gone out of the way to ensure that all of you will have a great time in the SPIRIT of the Seletar H3!

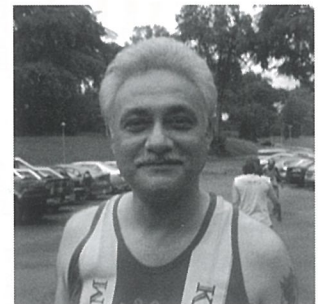

Hats off to the organizing committee for their efforts and contributions to make this event a unique one. To our brothers across the Causeway, namely the Sg Ujong boys, the PJ Animales and the JB Hashers, many thanks for all your contributions and your support for the event.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank our sponsors and supporters within and outside of the club who have come forward with their kind contributions and assistance, be it through advertisements in our magazine, by donating barrels of beer and/or by their kind presence in this celebration. We look forward to more similar moments with all of you in future Hash events.

To cut a long story short, just loosen up, let your hair down, and party till the barrels run dry and do help us make our 30th Anniversary Celebration a truly memorable one!

On On to one and all.

Manjit Sandhu "Ghandu++" Singh
Grandmaster
Seletar Hash House Harriers

* "foriegn devil" to those of you sods who don't speak Chinese

Message from the Organising Chair

Welcome.

The Seletar Hash House Harriers have a reputation for organising great celebrations. For our 30th anniversary, we felt that we should organise one more big celebration, before we turn into a bunch of old men drooling in nursing homes.

I realised that our anniversary would be the week before Interhash. I said that someone should do something. Someone, meaning someone other than me.

When the GM asked me to lead the organising committee, I said that I would be willing to do it if, and only if, we were prepared to do everything necessary to ensure that it is a fantastic event. Enough manpower and budget to do it right. He said OK. And I said OK.

What was I thinking?

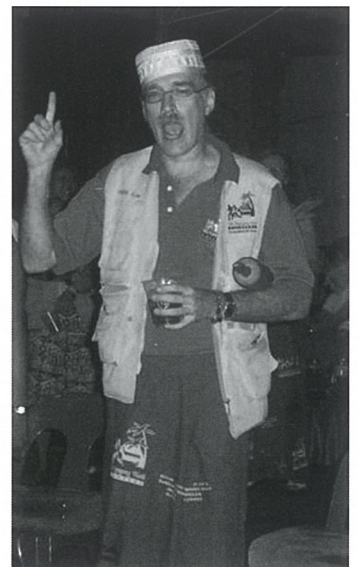

It has been a lot of work. This event would not have been possible without the efforts of the organising committee members, who have been working very hard for the last few weeks. It would not have been possible without the financial support of our sponsors; please give them your support. And lastly, it would not have been possible without you, the hashers from around the world who are joining us for this celebration. We hope that you enjoy yourselves this weekend.

On On!

Ed's 2 cents' worth'a nonsense

Thirty years mean different things to different people. For a woman, this is a period where she still has the vitality of youth, coupled with the hard won wisdom of experience. For the average hashman, it's still sex sex sex on his mind as usual (from 9 - 90 for that matter). For the married man on the other hand, it's a lifetime sentence with no parole for good behaviour - except for several hours every Tuesday evening!

So Seletar is now 30 years old. We've had 1,637 runs, or come approximately 13,000 km since we first started out, to get to this stage of our life. We're Singapore's largest chapter by membership and we have folk from all walks of life. And we now want to share it all with our fellow hashfolk from around the world.

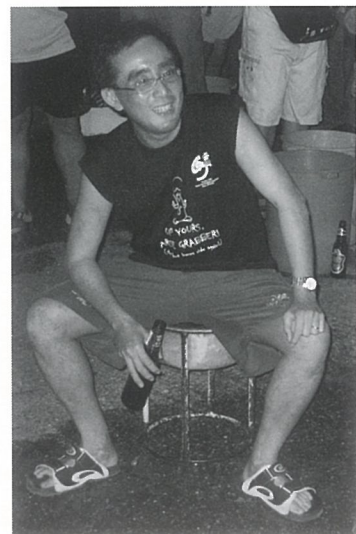

When Virginia Slim asked me to be Editor of this rag, I wasn't sure what I was going to get into, having absolutely less than zero experience in publishing. With the help of a little tool called Scribus (with thanks to Nevercome!) I hope the rag does justice to the event.

On On!

At last I received the script for the Inaugural, so bear with us Sel.H.H.H. people you'll be having two scripts this issue.

SELETAR H3 - Inaugural Run 21 June 80 Hares: J Ms. Baptist, Chew & Paul helped by Avgas, Raymond Baptist (S.U.) & Surj

Hail! Salute! - the birth of Seletar Hash House Harriers. The No. 1 Run was certainly a memorable occasion. A number of Hashmen from Sungei Ujong, P.J. and J.B. showed up for this 'celebration run'. Though the turn-out of Seletar Hashhurds could have been better (where were you, Gootie), there were enough present to press on and make it an enjoyable occasion.

Marsiling School, the start point, and the villagers in the surrounding area never saw a more weird crowd. After Grandmaster Sando had done his speech bit, the pack was off with James Abey setting the pace, horn in his horny hands. (For the records, the horn was donated by JM. Baptist) After the first check point, the pack soon found themselves in a muddy patch, surrounded by shoulder-high lallang-type growth (thanks, hares). Then came an up-hill stretch and the tricky bit of running in between vegetable plots without killing the poor saplings, amidst concerned stares by farmers and daughters. Some even stopped to take a quick shower at the rotating water-sprinkler! Then came the strenuous bit (for the stragglers, that is) of covering two more hills, going past farm houses and Nan Chian Primary School (I'm sure I've got the spelling right). On the final home stretch, Sando gracefully allowed Grandmaster Alex of PJ to romp ahead. Ang Chuan Seng (that smooth character) and a few more were already home and on the beers by then.

The 'On-On' that followed saw the out-stationers winning the 'boat' race on a replay, and Ray Baptist from SU just edging Raspal for the  $\frac{1}{2}$  yard race. In the sing-a-long, Paul 'Lucia' Ang found his match in 'Mario Marito' Amaloo from JB (what a fine Hash singer he is!) The food for the On On was really something else, especially with Eddie's 'sambal blachan' thrown in. Many thanks must go to Avtar's wife, Belle, for her effort. The evening ended with JM John trying to 'leon' everyone into drinking  $\frac{1}{2}$  yards, and our friendly Sikhs providing a cultural song/dance item. Still others found time later to hit Orchard Road. But that's another story.

HASH SCRIBE : G.M. SANDO

RUN 2 HARES: AVGAS (Avtar Singh)/POLLY WOOLY (On Sec)

About twenty five crazy 'bus thirds' assembled at the Portsdown field around 5.45. Then came in the hares a puffing and a huffing giving the impression of a tough lay. Grandmaster Sando as usual drove in at the last minute, followed closely by the Hash Honker.

6.05 saw the honker leading the pack up a slight slope heading towards the railway line. After about  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile treading carefully along the line, no paper was seen. Some clown thought that it was a check, and Grandmaster and yours truly (being the most x-perienced Hashmen) went a hunting for the trail and ended up in the sugarcane plot. 15 minutes was spent looking for the trail (and getting the GM out of the plot) when Honker spotted paper again.

The Inaugural Run was a tremendous (sic) success according to the seasonal outstation Hashmen from P. J., S. Ujong and Tanjong Petri C.I.B.Y. Every runner was given a Seletar H.H.H. tee-shirt.

Sorry to say, our Hash scribe is suffering from a "broken writing hand" so I can't supply the script about the Inaugural Run – however, I've been promised that it will be forth-coming cos' he's practising to write with his left hand.

A special thank must definitely go to Belle – Hash Brew's lovely wife for the marvellous, yummy food. Liz, (our J.-Master Baptist's gorgeous feminine connection) for her efforts in getting several sponsors for tee-shirts and running shorts and Margaret for her precise typing effort.

The On! On! Ended close to mid-night and I heard that the outstation Hashmenn with a few S.H.H.H. carried on at Tivoli till 11:50am the next day. Boy! Isn't that having a wee bit of fun.

HASH KITTY

Our $ will definitely be boosted with a $160/- contribution from Ameer Singh who had the misfortune of having taken the $160/- call for the hamper auction initiated by Alex Thomas "The Bear". Ameer graciously donated the hamper to the outstation Hashmen. And in true hash spirit, everybody had a swing (sic) of Johny Black from the hamper.

2nd run venue : Portsdown Road at IPI (military transport base) BASF – watch for the H H H sign posting along Ayer Rajah Road.

Time : Precisely 1800 hrs (6:00 p.m.)

Date: 1st July 1980

LAST WORDS ! ! !

Special thanks to Atta Marine for their cash sponsor of $500/- through the courtesy of J.-Master Chew.

Runs

Hashers will have a choice of long, medium and short runs. Please keep in mind that the times shown below are for front-runners, so it will obviously take a bit longer if you are walking.

On Saturday, 26th June 2010, we have confirmed one long run, one medium run, and one short run.

Long Run

Hares: Sgt. Bilko and Barbie Doll
Sweep: Black Hole
Starting Point: Venus Drive
Fast runner about 1 hour 45 minutes

Medium Run

Hares: Arse Grabber and Prime Prick and Up Yours
Sweep: Jack Off
Starting Point: End of Rifle Range Road
Fast runner about 1 hour 15 minutes

Short Run

Hare: Opener
Sweep: Woodstock
Starting Point: Turf City
Fast runner about 55 minutes

We also have some optional runs which we will set on Saturday, 26th June 2010, if there is enough demand. Please check at the Registration counter on the day itself.

After lunch on Sunday, 27th June 2010, buses will take you from Turf City to the Kranji War Cemetery. You will see hash founder A. S. Gisbert's name inscribed on the wall with the rest of the war dead. There will be a medium run and a short run, both ending back at the War Memorial, where we will have a circle and then bus you back to Turf City.

Medium Run

Hares: Deep Hole and Aqua
Sweep: Arse Grabber
Starting Point: Kranji Commonwealth War Memorial

Short Run

Hares: Deep Hole and Aqua
Starting Point: Kranji Commonwealth War Memorial

At 4:30PM on Sunday, 27th June 2010, we will have a family run together with the Singapore Hash House Horrors.

Kids of all ages are welcome. The Horrors are celebrating their 28th anniversary, and guest fees will be at $20 per child

It was my thirtieth year to heaven

An event as significant as SH3's (Seletar Hash House Harriers) 30th Anniversary cannot pass without an adequate write-up. As we could not afford to pay OPTO, our in-house scratch, we have farmed it out to our own hasher in Wales last October. Dylan T scribbled:

It was my thirtieth year to heaven
Woke to my hearing from harbour and neighbour wood
And the song birds winging my name over the treetops
Myself to set foot
And walked abroad in the shower of all my days.

Yes, Dylan knew about our cold showers seated on a block of ice. In SH3's 30 years, we've ran them all – treetops (at our family run), MRT (Mass Rapid Transport) train tracks, KJE (Kallang-Jurong Expressway) underground (before they were opened to the public), blukar and forested jungle, tunnels, flooded canals, stinking monsoon drains, 50 inch drain pipes under the BKE (Bukit Timah Expressway), Army-protected terrain, island hops, bus runs, outstations, and all. In running with the Hash, we got to see more places in Singapore where others would not go.

You name it – Seletar has done it! Now at 30, on our 30th year, older and definitely not wiser, Dylan offers:

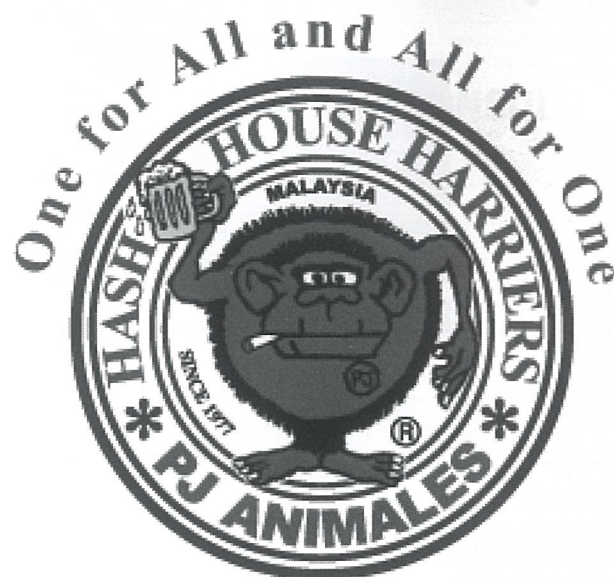

O may my heart's truth
Still be sung
On this high hill in a year's turning.

30 years – 1560 runs to date – and every run is a good run.

OnOn, OnOnOn & So On.

HASHMAN'S LAMENT

Off early Tuesday to the run
Charge through jungle oh what fun
Return to run-site thinking ale
Consume much liquid gold and pale
Reach home late - don't know the time
Fall asleep dream dreams sublime
In drunken coma toss till dawn
Don't ever call me Wednesday morn.

Hash T-shirts

Through the years, our hash has produced dozens of running shirts. Some of them are popular because they are comfortable for running (drip dry, 100% cotton, sweat shirt material, football jersey type of material). Others are popular because of its style (singlets, sleeveless, ¾ sleeve, V-neck, crew neck, collared neck). Some have obscene motif, some are more subtle but some are downright sacrilegious. For those hashmen whose maid or mother in some cases, does the laundry at home, I wonder what goes through their minds when they see some of the motifs on these t-shirts.

There are several series of running shirts. The first one that comes to mind is the red National Day singlet given out by mad Chinaman Boo CB year after year (until recently). Then, there is the colourful Capricorn run singlet/t-shirt by those birthday boys. The Mamas have their annual Deepavli (or Diwali depending which part of India you are from) run T-shirt that always feature the burning oil lamp. However, there was one year when they outdone themselves and came up with some poondan design of red and green oil lamps. Although the material was soft and feels comfortable, no hashmen would want to be seen in public wearing one of them because it was so queerish looking. There is also the annual Vaishakhi run staged by the Bhais giving away t-shirts with the crossed Kirpan. The Chinaman run T-shirt given out during Chinese new year usually feature the Chinese zodiac animal of that year. There was a short series of t-shirts given out by the Austrians and another by the Dutch in the customary Queen's orange.

Of the designs, couple of them were obscene enough to almost gotten our hashmen into trouble. One of them is the Austrian Alpine Erotica run with two peaks of the Austrian Alps drawn to look like the knees of a woman with her legs wide open. Bollocks was wearing that t-shirt when he was stopped by a police car. Another of the Austrian run featured the Austrian Coat of Arms, but the eagle had a hanging dick and a set of balls instead of the feathered tail. The 69th Eat-Out run featured two opposing faces within the numerals with their tongues wagging at each other. The Whip, who is usually associated with being a real prick, would have the outline of a prick splashed across the front of the t-shirt. This is another example of the type of T-shirt you would not like to take home for washing.

Once in a while, we get t-shirts or shorts with photograph of the hares. These are always in demand 20 years later when we want to know what so and so looked like when they just started hashing. Slime gave out a t-shirt with his own portrait super-imposed over the face of our 50 dollar bill. I think it is a matter of time before the Monetary Authority of Singapore ban that t-shirt.

To inject some variety into the customary t-shirts, some hares also provided us with track pants, bandana, wrap around sarong, fanny pack pouches, etc. These are always a welcome souvenir for visiting hasher to take back home to show others that they ran with the SELETAR HASH HOUSE HARRIERS.

Hashing around the World

I ran my first hash run in the summer of 1967 with the Sandakan Hash House Harriers. Since then, I have gone on hash runs (excluding celebration runs) in Medan, Kathmandu, Abu Dhabi, Riyadh, Muscat, Washington DC, Dallas, San Diego and Beijing. I shall now recount some of my experiences running on these hashes.

The Sandakan hash was very small group in 1967 with no more than twenty runners each week. The Grand Master was the MD of the Anchor beer agent in town, which made it very convenient. Each week, the beer would be chilled for us and stored in the company landrover. The hares just had to drive the landrover to the run site. We could return whatever was left over and only pay for what was consumed.

Then, I lived in Medan for a while in 1979. I revived my hash interest and joined the Medan hash. During my time there, I earned my hash name NUTS, which I am proud to be associated with till today. Most expats arrive on the run site with chauffeur driven cars, so during one of the runs, the hares managed to pull off an A to B run where they got the drivers to move all the vehicles to B after the runners set off, so that any short cutter would come back to an empty run site if they did not complete the run.

In 1980, I met several fellow officers from the Air Force at the KL Interhash, and I was invited me to join the Seletar Hash, so here I am today. In the eighties, I had the opportunity to travel to West Asia for work. Those were the days before the internet, so I was told that all I had to do was to call the Standard Chartered Bank or the British High Commission, and chances are, I would find a hasher there who can invite me to the hash. In Kathmandu, we usually ran through padi fields. In Abu Dhabi, Muscat and Riyadh, the runs which were set with flour, took us through the desert. Sometimes, the trail would end abruptly because the flour was eaten by some wild goats or camels.

Several months before my first run with the Riyadh hash, apparently, one of the hares who was setting a false trail, never returned and was found dead in the desert. Usually, no beer would be served after the run. Once, everyone was told to take a different route back into the city because the religious police had set up a road block to check on unmarried couples riding in the same car.

In the nineties, I travelled to the US frequently, so I had the opportunity to run with several of the hashes there. In Washington DC, I did a run in the snow. The trail was set by red paint sprayed on the white snow. In Dallas, one of the runs took us through a topless bar, and everyone was requested to stuff a dollar note into the stripper's g-string. In San Diego, I met a lady hasher who lived in Singapore and she remembered the Seletar Hash well.

In the early two thousands, I was spending a fair bit of time in Beijing, so I became a regular on the Beijing hash. One memorable weekend run, we travelled to a part of the Great Wall which was not a popular tourist spot. There, we spend overnight, sleeping on the wall under the stars. Next day, we were told that the wall is infested with scorpions and we were lucky that no one was bitten.

Of course, with the internet nowadays, one just had to surf the net and find out information about all the hashes around the world, their run sites each week and the contacts of the committee who may be able to guide you and/or arrange for a pickup to the hash. Through the hash, I am glad that I had a chance to make many friends as well as being able to visit the rural area of many different countries around the world.

Hash Signs, etc in the Seletar Hash House Harriers

- by Jude "Up Yours" Tan

Circle check - look around a perimeter of 100M for continuation of trail

T-check: go back about 100M and look for the real trail

Lost paper - false trail OR the f*cking hares ran out of trail markers OR the f*cking hares got drunk and decide to call it a day.

Trail marker using toilet paper (or "TP") - more environmentally friendly AND in case there's an "emergency"

Trail marker in flour/chalk, sometimes with hash identifier (see next two)

SHHH this way, trail marker

Singapore Bike Hash this way - likely to end up with the pack coming back to the runsite on the back of lorries, in taxis, etc. Also S2H3, HHHS, LCH3, THHH and any other form of HHH; not that some Seletar-men can tell the difference!

(Marked in flour) - hares encountered angry bees/ants/husbands whilst laying the trail

What any self-respecting hashman should do

The Whipstick - baton of office for the Whip (or RA for the rest of you c*nts), an august personality that is referred to in the previous entry

Hash Singlish for "Please come in and set a trail here anytime"

Anything from 200M to 2KM

a.k.a. "Dream on"

"Hash shit holder" - in other words - "This dickhead can't set a proper run to save his life!"

"Hare" - one who sets the run. Looking like one of the 3 Stooges is, of course, strictly optional

Hash Prick(s) - awarded each year to the most creative trouble-maker of the year. Kretapi (pictured right) is vying for the "Hash Prick Hall of Fame"

Love Making Tips For 'Senior' Hashmen...

1. Wear your glasses...to make sure your partner is actually in the bed.
2. Set timer for 3 minutes...in case you doze off in the middle.
3. Set the mood with lighting...turn them ALL OFF!
4. Make sure you put 911 on your speed dial before you begin.
5. Write partner's name on your hand in case you can't remember.
6. Use extra polygrip so your teeth don't end up under the bed.
7. Have Tylenol ready in case you actually complete the act.
8. Make all the noise you want.....the neighbours are deaf too.
9. If it works..., call everyone you know with the good news!!
10. Don't even think about trying it twice

*****

'SENIOR' IS WHEN...

Your sweetie says, 'Let's go upstairs and make love,' and you answer, 'Pick one; I can't do both!'

'SENIOR' IS WHEN...

Your friends compliment you on your new alligator shoes - and you're barefoot.

'SENIOR' IS WHEN...

Going bra-less pulls all the wrinkles out of your face.

'SENIOR' IS WHEN....

You don't care where your spouse goes, just as long as you don't have to go along.

'SENIOR' IS WHEN...

You are cautioned to slow down by the doctor instead of by the police.

'SENIOR' IS WHEN.

'Getting a little action' means you don't need to take any fibre today.

'SENIOR' IS WHEN...

'Getting lucky' means you find your car in the parking lot.

'SENIOR' IS WHEN...

An 'all nighter' means not getting up to use the bathroom.

Paddy was patiently waiting and watching the traffic cop on a busy street crossing. The cop stopped the flow of traffic and shouted, 'Okay, pedestrians.' Then he'd allow the traffic to pass.

He'd done this several times, and Paddy still stood on the sidewalk.

After the cop had shouted, "Pedestrians!" for the tenth time, Paddy went over to him and said, 'Is it not about time ye let the Catholics cross?'

A French guest, staying in a hotel in Los Angeles phoned room service for some pepper.

"Black pepper, or white pepper?" asked the concierge.

"Toilette pepper!"

*****

A psychiatrist was conducting a group therapy session with four young mothers and their small children.

"You all have obsessions," he observed.

To the first mother, Mary, he said, "You are obsessed with eating. You've even named your daughter Candy."

He turned to the second mom, Ann, "Your obsession is with money. Again, it manifests itself in your child's name: Penny."

He turned to the third mom, Joyce, "Your obsession is alcohol. This too shows itself in your child's name, Brandy."

At this point, the fourth mother, Kathy, quietly got up, took her little boy by the hand and whispered, "Come on, Dick, this guy has no idea what he's talking about. Let's go pick up Peter and Willy at school and get dinner started."

This guy was on the side of the road hitchhiking on a real dark night in the middle of a thunder storm. Time passed slowly and no cars went by. It was raining so hard he could hardly see his hand in front of his face. Suddenly he saw a car approaching slowly and appearing ghostlike in the rain. It slowly crept towards him and stopped.

Wanting a ride real bad, the guy jumped in the car and closed the door. Only then did he realise that there was nobody behind the wheel. The car slowly started moving and the guy was terrified, too scared to think of jumping out and running. The guy saw that the car was slowly approaching a sharp curve, still too scared to jump out, he started to pray and beg for his life; he was sure the ghost car would go off the road and into the bayou and he would surely drown, when just before the curve, a hand appeared through the driver's window and turned the steering wheel, guiding the car safely around the bend.

Paralysed with fear, the guy watched the hand reappear everytime they reached a curve. Finally the guy, scared to near death, had all he could take and jumped out of the car and ran to town.

Wet and in shock, he went into a bar and voice quavering, ordered two shots of whisky, then told everybody about his supernatural experience. A silence enveloped and everybody got goose bumps when they realised the guy was telling the truth.

About half-an-hour later two guys walked into the bar and one says to the other, "Look friend, that's the idiot who rode in our car when we were pushing it in the rain."

*****

We've all heard about people having guts or balls, but do you really know the difference between them?

In an effort to keep you informed, the definitions are listed below:

GUTS - Is arriving home late after a night out with the guys, being met by your wife with a broom, and having the guts to ask: 'Are you still cleaning, or are you flying somewhere?'

BALLS - Is coming home late after a night out with the guys, smelling of perfume and beer, lipstick on your collar, slapping your wife's butt and saying 'You're next, Chubby.'

I hope this clears up any confusion on the definitions.

Medically speaking there is no difference in the outcome.

Maharishi Phucknuckel's Guide to Zen

1. Do not walk behind me, for I may not lead. Do not walk ahead of me, for I may not follow. Do not walk beside me either, just fuck off and leave me alone.
2. The journey of a thousand miles begins with a broken fan belt and a flat tyre.
3. The darkest hours come just before the dawn. So if you're going to steal your neighbour's milk and newspaper, that's the time to do it.
4. Sex is like air. It only becomes really important when you aren't getting any.
5. Don't aspire to become irreplaceable. If you can't be replaced, you can't be promoted.
6. Remember, no one is listening until you fart.
7. Never forget that you are unique, like everyone else.
8. Never test the depth of the water with both feet.
9. If you think nobody cares whether you're dead or alive, try missing a couple of mortgage payments.
10. Before you judge someone, you should walk a mile in their shoes. That way, when you judge them, you're a mile away and you have their shoes.
11. If at first you don't succeed, avoid skydiving.
12. Give a man a fish and he will eat for a day. Teach him how to fish, and he will sit in a boat and drink beer all day.
13. Have you ever lent someone a 20 and never seen that person again? It was probably worth it.
14. If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything.
15. Some days we are the flies; some days we are the windscreens.
16. Don't worry; it only seems kinky the first time.
17. Good judgment comes from experience, experience comes from bad judgment.
18. The quickest way to double your money is to fold it in half and put it back in your pocket.
19. A closed mouth gathers no feet.
20. There are two theories about how to win an argument with a woman. Neither one works.
21. Generally speaking, you aren't learning much if your lips are moving.
22. Never miss a good chance to shut up.
23. Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.
24. When we are born we are naked, wet, hungry, and we get smacked on our arse. From there on in, life gets worse.
25. The most wasted day of all is one in which we have not laughed.

Remember not to forget that which you do not need to know.
